(Mike and Emma are taking a nature walk. Suddenly, Mike shouts and stops walking.)

Emma: 28 Why are you shouting?

Mike : I just saw a snake passing by, but it was gone 29.

Emma: Really? So you don't know what it looks like. That's scary. Should we walk back now?

Mike : I was only a little bit shocked. We can keep walking to the top of the mountain. Go ahead.

Emma : But...won't it suddenly appear and bite us?

Mike : That's why we have to use our sticks to scare snakes away. 30 so that we won't trip over stones or roots of trees.

Emma: I'll keep that in mind. You also need to protect me. I have been afraid of snakes since I was a child.

Mike : Don't worry. 31

Emma: Will you promise me that?

Mike : Yes, I promise. You are very safe with me. Let's keep moving now. We still have a long way to go.

32~34

Barbara is really angry because she found Ken, her brother, took her iPad away. He insisted he just forgot to tell her before he “borrowed” it. He told Barbara not to make a mountain out of a molehill. “It’s not a big deal. You shouldn’t be angry about it,” he said. As the days pass, Barbara expects Ken to apologize; however, the apology never comes. In fact, Ken know he made a mistake, but it’s hard for him to say, “I’m sorry.” He is afraid that apologizing will make him look weak.

Ken is not the only person that thinks that way, and that’s why many people don’t say sorry. Saying sorry doesn’t make you look weaker; on the other hand, it shows you have the strength to admit you did wrong and want to make up for your mistakes. When you apologize to people, they know that you understand their feelings and your apology will bring you close to them than before.

If you are not sure how to say sorry in the right way, here are some tips:

- * Do it in person and say it with words. Don’t make excuses or say that other person is the problem; all you have say is “I’m sorry.”
- * Don’t put off your apologies. Say you’re sorry as soon as you find your words or actions hurt others.
- * Apologies have to be real; they have to be from your heart. Say sorry because you want to, not because you have to.
- * Tell others what you might do differently to keep yourself from doing the same thing in the future.

People make mistakes that hurt others sometimes. Apologizing isn’t easy, but it’s very important for everyone to learn how to do it right.

* insist 堅持 admit 承認 apology 道歉 apologize 道歉

32. What does Ken mean by saying Barbara “makes a mountain out of a molehill”?
 (A) She treated this small problem too seriously.
 (B) She should work with others as a team.
 (C) She has to get down to earth and stop dreaming.
 (D) She shouldn’t run away from her problems.
33. What can we learn from the second paragraph?
 (A) Telling others your feelings makes you look weak.
 (B) Apologies make people feel better and bring people closer.
 (C) People usually don’t mean it when they apologize.
 (D) Saying sorry sometimes makes your problem worse.
34. Which is NOT a right thing to do when you decide to say sorry to others?
 (A) Talk to them face to face and apologize for what happened.
 (B) Tell them to stay cool because being angry isn’t helpful.
 (C) Tell them you won’t make the same mistake again.
 (D) Tell them you’re sorry as soon as you make a mistake.

35~37

Mr. White asked his students to tell about their group plan.

Jay : We have to make our parents believe we can take a trip 5000 miles away by ourselves.
It won't be easy.

Mike: Jay has already made a wonderful plan for our trip. We need to tell our parents the plan and let them know the trip is safe. Besides, Rose is older than us. Our parents will feel better because she's in the group.

Wendy : Thanks to Jay, he helped a lot with this plan. I think we all need to learn to take good care of ourselves and each other, not just ask one person to take care of us. Now, let's think about the way to get enough money for the trip.

Rose : Maybe we should find the farm work for accommodation there. We can spend some time working on the farm and get places to stay and meals for free. But if we decide to do so, we need to collect the information and make a big change of our plan.

Ming : I'm going out of this plan. It'll take me too much time for the trip. I'll visit my uncle in New City. We still can take the same plane to America because we'll be in the same country.

35. What can we learn about the five students?

- (A) They all said bad things about the plan.
- (B) All of them decided to work for the trip.
- (C) Not all of them will go on this plan.
- (D) They talked about the plan after the trip.

36. Which of the problem about the trip is NOT talked about?

- (A) The information is too difficult to collect.
- (B) The trip will take them a lot of time.
- (C) The trip will cost them much money.
- (D) How to make their parents believe the trip is safe.

37. What does the farm work for accommodation mean?

- (A) To help their parents with their work on the farm.
- (B) To spend some hours finding out the farm.
- (C) To do the farm work for a free place to stay in.
- (D) To be paid by doing the farm work and making lunch.
